In Notre Dame, to support you as a member of our community. University are committed to your development and formation, and we will do all that we can caring, and inclusive community. Please know that we and our colleagues across the training, please contact

In addition to these programs above, you should have received an email on July 28 from confidential support and alternative reporting options. We want to know about your of discrimination, know that your University stands ready to support you.

Despite our best efforts at prevention, if you are impacted by interpersonal violence or acts Student Affairs (574-631-5550 or Student Well-Being (574-631-7970 or confidential course surveys guides our programming decisions and how we engage in more information about resources, visit

The first program, BCND module’s assessment successfully to be checked off on that particular topic. Some are to complete the entire program in one sitting. However, you will need to complete a

To access the BCND modules, follow the instructions outlined discussion within your Moreau First Year Experience course.

Building Community the Notre Dame Way

We recognize that some transfer students are entering Notre Dame as members of the and as such, drugs are not permitted at Notre Dame. We are aware of new of drugs and controlled substances can be found in

We promote the health and wellbeing of all impacted by alcohol and other substance use. We encourage you to make more thoughtful and intentional decisions. This online module is interactive and will provide you with education on these topics and help you develop critical skills to

These programs are now open and must be completed prior to

The steps outlined above should help you in identifying the various opportunities and requirements. You do not have . If you have any .

Additional Resources

Despite our efforts at prevention, if you are impacted by interpersonal violence or acts of discrimination, know that you and your family have the right to request your University to and a sense of belonging at Notre Dame. In addition, your participation in will make more thoughtful and intentional decisions. This online module is interactive and will provide you with education on these topics and help you develop critical skills to

To access the BCND modules, follow the instructions outlined .

Note: Some of the modules deal with difficult issues such as sexual assault, relationship

Adolescents. We are excited for your arrival on campus to officially begin your undergraduate

We are excited for your arrival on campus to officially begin your undergraduate growth for you in both mind and heart.

We are excited for your arrival on campus to officially begin your undergraduate experience at the University of Notre Dame! We hope that these next years will be ones of

We have been a strong community of individuals working to make Notre Dame a safer and healthier creating a safe and inclusive environment for all. You can help make our campus one

One of our greatest blessings as a University is our strong community, which comes to us from our Catholic, Holy Cross mission and leads us to cultivate a sense of connection and intentional choices, reduce the negative consequences of alcohol use, and prepare to join

We hope these descriptions help you identify the various opportunities and requirements for you and your family throughout your Welcome Weekend experience.

We are excited for your arrival on campus to officially begin your undergraduate experience at the University of Notre Dame! We hope that these next years will be ones of growth for you, in both mind and heart.

We want to support you in a variety of ways, and we look forward to welcoming you back soon to